Welcome “Gypsy’s Paradise” and owners, Brent and Kelly Hutchison.

It has been a dream of both Kelly and Brent to make Ferryville their permanent home and also open a business here. In July, 2014, Gypsy’s Paradise at 14780 River Bluff Drive will be the newest vacation lodging rental available in Ferryville and their dream comes true. It has an updated kitchen and gorgeous cabinets, spacious living room with stone fireplace, fantastic floor plan. Two bedrooms with 2 queen beds in each, and other sleeping spaces handle up to 10 people & has cable TV. The view of the Mississippi River and Winneshiek are panoramic at the widest place on the river. Let the fun begin!

Brent is an accomplished wood worker and Kelly has many artistic talents. They currently live in Beloit, WI plus have a “getaway home” here in Stelter Valley that they hope to call their permanent home very soon.

Ferryville Spring Migration Day & Hike!

On Saturday, May 10, 2014, you can join in on the Spring Bird Migration Day & Sugar Bluff Hike with Mississippi Valley Conservancy (MVC). Celebrate International Spring Migration Day with a Mother’s Day hike on the Sugar Creek Bluff. Cosponsored by the Ferryville Tourism Council and the MVC, we will meet at 7:30 AM at the Ferryville Village Hall for treats and instructions. Families, beginning birders, and all who love nature are welcome! The terrain will be fairly level as we will carpool to the trailhead, and we will be on the lookout for warblers and early wild flowers.
