

Welcome to the Grandview Motel and enjoy the hospitality of Todd and Donna Lensing. The Lensings, with daughters Maddie and Ruby, became the proud owners of the Grandview in January, 2006 and tell everyone that this is the best place to be. “We are both doing what we love and are so fortunate to have the life style that we all enjoy. Look at this view and this place! It is so family friendly and has been more than wonderful.” Both Todd and Donna have many years of business experience and in retail. “We get guests from all over the Midwest plus both coasts. We have a doctor from California who comes for a month every summer and also brings friends. Then there are people from Norway, England, Russia, Australia & Scandinavian countries who have been our guests. They want to be on the Mississippi River because they studied it in school and they want to see Bald Eagles. We have both of those!” The Grandview has 9 rooms, 4 of which are kitchenettes and have the feel of the northwoods plus are spotlessly clean and refreshing. Guests are folks who are traveling on vacation, hunters, fishermen/women, writers, families, bikers, an opera star and many more. Spring is the favorite time of year for Donna because “Donna’s Garden” is coming alive. She describes her entire property as “her garden” and the plan is “contemporary whimsy”. “Curb appeal, great customer service, friendliness and immaculate rooms keep bringing people back because we want repeat business. We want our guests to keep coming back and bring their friends and family!” is Donna & Todd’s philosophy. Check out the Grandview website for more!
