

Bald Eagle Day
March 2, 2013
10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Bald Eagle Day – Saturday, March 2, 2013. There will be a live eagle, other raptors and, of course, Lois, the Owl at 12:00 and a repeat bird program at 2 p.m. Bald Eagle Day is presented by the Ferryville Tourism Council and co-sponsored by Friends of Pool 9.

Plan to attend this program and you will be delighted. It is a program for people of all ages, kids, adults, young and “mature”. Laura Freeman of the University of Minnesota Raptor Center and one of the eagles is featured in the photo above.

Brett Forestiere of the McGregor District, U.S. Fish and Wildlife is part of the morning program and does a participative presentation about the Upper Mississippi River Refuge, right where we all live. This is especially interesting for children and families.

Jon Stavers plays his guitar, sings, educates about birds of the region. Jon is an expert birder and entertainer, well known in the area and part of the morning program.

The famous treats, hot chocolate and Kickapoo Orchards cider will be available. Kids activities too!

THIS IS A FREE PROGRAM
