

July 6, 2021     Newsletter Articles

River Bluff Daze

Life is good and July 24 brings the return of River Bluff Daze to Ferryville. The Sugar Creek Bluff Hike is happening (see article for details) to kick off the day. The Antique Tractor Association is holding the annual Tractor Pull at the Ferryville Community Center/Fire Dept. with a new feature – “The Kiddie Pull” at 10 a.m. Details can be found at their website: www.ferryvilletractor.com. The Pull starts at 11 am.

Tractor Pull and Community Center Event Features:

- 27 Tractor Pulling Classes (New Super Antique Classes added)
- Kids Pedal Pull by Kindschi Pedal Pulls
- Tractor & Bucket Raffles
- Concessions by Freeman Lutheran Men’s Club and Ferryville Fire/EMR

Shuttle rides between Sugar Creek Park and Ferryville Community Center provided.

Ferryville Vision & Promotion will be selling tickets for their annual Quilt Raffle to benefit Sugar Creek Park and the Playground. The quilt created by artist Diane Rosenthal is featured and this will be her last one for the event so buy lots of tickets if you love her work – so unique and one of a kind for sure. You can also win a ceramic bowl created by artist Kay Campbell or a $100 gift card for Cabela’s.

Music starts at 5 pm downtown in Ferryville featuring “The Smokehouse”, a local group sponsored by Jerry’s Sportsman’s and The Wooden Nickel Saloon. Both are having drink specials Saturday afternoon.

Free Fireworks at dusk in the heart of downtown Ferryville sponsored by Ferryville Vision and Promotion. Bring your lawn chairs, bug spray and enjoy the show put on by Cheapo Depot Mike Calloway and crew.

Prime Sponsor for River Bluff Daze is River Bank – Ferryville Branch – a huge thank you to them.

Ferryville Farmers Market

Shop local and shop at your Ferryville Farmers Market every Saturday from 9 a.m. – 3 p.m. at Sugar Creek Park. Now is the time to get your summer veggies like lettuce, tomatoes, kohlrabi, broccoli, green beans, summer squash, zucchini and so many more surprises. Fresh home made breads are part of the bakery items which also feature cinnamon rolls, Danish, challah bread, focaccia, cookies, pies and of course other wonderful treats. Home made granola is another item you will find. Wonderstate coffee – Driftless – is available both in whole bean and drip grind. Amish baskets, quilts, furniture and crafts are sold too.

Hurda Kountry Krafts is a great vendor to give you such a variety for garden or landscaping décor, gifts and ideas. Peggy Thompson has artistic soaps that surprise you and make your skin glow. Larry Wilson features bakery, produce and popcorn plus infused flavor vinegars. Alyce Salmon is another superb vendor with a glorious garden that produces fruits and vegetables to surprise and delight you. A new vendor is Dawn Huffy with caps, shirts, other items. Skip Meiners has honey, breads, antiques to name a few.

Visit and shop the local market plus get your free cup of coffee and have a great time.